Sunday Apr 19. 1857

Not pleasant this morning so up late - Home, washed and shaved - ready to go to Church in season - This meeting in P.M. went to Jabez W Emerson and got his horse and waggon for Charles to ride to Hemmiker with - Started for Hemmiker, by way of Clements Hill and Revolts Bridge, I at four P.M. with Sarah Ann - Charles and Mary - went the usual way - Not at this west meeting house - Till before we started it had been a gusty day - Snow squally &c - but - Soon after it set in to snow in real earnest - Arrived at this place of Destination at 5 3/4 oclock - Called at the door of Rev. Mr Eatons - Not at home so set down - and made ourselves at home till ten minutes past

Sit o'clock and at the request of the Preacher we all stood up and after Sundry questions had been asked by him and answered by us he pronounced us Man and Wife Amen - To Our witnesses were Mary Eaton Mrs Wordsworth - and Home at eight - warm - and Plain in our Chamber to sleep -

Now has commenced a new life for me and for Sarah - Now to labor together and make each other happy - And as we live for each other so shall our happiness be promoted - So I am resolved that to the latest hour of my life I will be unto my wife -

Then am many men
a great man / Thus am I and Pauls Paroke
expains and make me
christen is Christi companion but his is no right as Romans
for he is a Jewish
and uprincipled
man, and Cum 7.
must his Jude-ism must & Thus he gave up his as a new man in-Christ must & He heard his never entirely new as must 2

Grant O Lord God Lord
Thine was Dado purpose to deny a portion of this Kind race

God my Shew the covenant of Sin to the very Children and Lord a moment de for washed away and he no more Lord Lord pour on most Gracious and this must be the case
